

Information opportunity on how to establish a US business entity.

Dear members of Executive Cognito.

Executive Cognito has been given a unique opportunity to host and have Honory Consul of the Kingdom of Denmark available for a morning information meeting on Friday October 11th from 0900 – 1100 in the morning where the subject is:

“ Basic Legal Considerations for Danish Businesses in the USA”.

The presentation is applicable to any company wishing to do business anywhere in the USA and will in approximately 45 minutes include the following subjects:

- Corporate formation and registration;
- Contractual Obligations of Companies;
- Insurance Issues;
- General Liability Issues;
- Products Liability Issues; and
- Other practical common legal concerns.

The presentation of course include the opportunity to ask questions and dig deeper into areas you might want to know more about.

Mr. Christopher Smith is well experienced in the area having made this type of presentations from time to time over the last 16 years in Denmark. Mr. Smith is based in Macon, Georgia and will also be happy to share an overview of international business in the state of Georgia, where some are covered in this link: <https://www.georgia.org/international/investment>

Executive Cognito will be host for a light breakfast for participants in this event and as confirmation with the Honory Consul needs to happen soon please announce your participation in the event no later than Friday September 13 to Frank Ewert: fe@executivecognito.com

We look forward to as many of our members as possible who could have an interest in learning more about US business opportunities and obstacles as well as good advice on how to set up the US business.

Kind regards
